LYNNWOOD POLLED SHORTHORN AUCTION SALE

AT THE FARM 3 MILES EAST OF

Carmel, Indiana

On Route 234

Wednesday, November 17, 1943

PLEASE BRING THIS CATALOG WITH YOU TO THE SALE.

FOREWORD

We extend to all Polled Shorthorn breeders and to everyone who admires good livestock an invitation to be our guests on November 17th.

Our Polled Shorthorn herd was founded six years ago this fall and no effort has been spared to make it a source of supply for cattle of the improving type. We have worked always to produce cattle not only of the approved type themselves but cattle that will reproduce that kind in the hands of other breeders. Through planned matings of carefully selected blood lines we are producing more uniform cattle each year. As evidence of progress in breeding toward uniformity of both type and bloodlines is the fact that all eight of the bulls offered are grandsons of one bull—King Collynie Jr.

We invite you to study these pedigrees and the cattle and to be with us if possible sale day. It is our hope that your purchases will be a source of both profit and pleasure to you.

CHAS. H. NICKEL,
Manager
